

2012 IED Cisitalia 202 E

IED → Cisitalia 202 E

IED Turin will go to Geneva with the Cisitalia 202. It will be the European Institute of Design's ninth release for world-wide preview at the show. This new show car has been born from the study of classis Cisitalia 202.

The students of the Master of Arts in Transportation Design have redesigned the coupé sport that has been an icon of elegance made in Italy of according to Italian post-war period.

As the name suggests the 202 and – where and are for evolution - the Cisitalia of 1947 wants to be a modern interpretation beginning from: also tracing faithful formulation of the historical motor vehicle, it has dimensions and power aligned to the times puts into effect them. The concept it expresses in the lines and the form design the refined and creative Italian, with a look face to the future of the brand.
